

Credit Guide

About Australian Military Bank

Australian Military Bank has an Australian Credit Licence authorising us to provide credit.

This Credit Guide provides you with an understanding of what to expect from us when we provide credit to you. The Guide includes information about some of our obligations under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (the National Credit Act).

You may also receive other documents when we provide services or credit to you.

BORROWING MONEY FROM US

Under the National Credit Act we are prohibited from providing you with credit under a credit contract if the contract will be unsuitable for you.

Similarly, we are prohibited from increasing the limit of an existing credit contract, if the new limit will be unsuitable for you.

A credit contract, or credit limit increase is unsuitable for you if at the time the contract is entered or limit increased it is likely that:

- you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract, or could only comply with substantial hardship at the time; or
- the contract or increase does not meet your requirements and objectives at that time

Our obligation to make a credit assessment

Before providing you with credit, we must make a preliminary assessment as to whether the contract or increase in limit will be unsuitable for you.

In order to make this assessment we must:

- make reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives in relation to the credit contract; and
- make reasonable inquiries about your financial situation, and take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation.

Obtaining this information helps us get a reasonable understanding of your need for credit as well as your ability to meet all the repayments, fees, charges and transactions associated with the proposed credit contract.

The extent of the inquiries we undertake will depend on the circumstances.

Your right to receive a copy of the credit assessment

You have the right to request a copy of our assessment of your suitability.

You may request a copy of the credit assessment up to 7 years after the day on which the credit contract is entered or the credit limit is increased.

Note – you are only entitled to receive a copy of your assessment if your loan is approved or credit limit increased.

You have other rights to access personal information we collect about you under the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Please refer to our Privacy Policy which is available from any branch or our website australianmilitarybank.com.au.

Dispute resolution procedures

Australian Military Bank has an internal dispute resolution process and is also a member of an independent external dispute resolution scheme. The dispute resolution system covers complaints by persons to whom we provide credit.

Our internal system can be accessed by:

- discussing your complaint with our local branch staff;
- contacting our Member Contact Centre on 1300 13 23 28;
- sending an email to complaints@australianmilitarybank.com.au; or
- writing to us at PO Box H151 Australia Square NSW 1215.

In many cases this leads to a successful resolution. However, if you are unhappy with any decision or our handling of the complaint, the complaint may be referred for external resolution. You may lodge a complaint with the with the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), who can be contacted on 1800 931 678 or by email info@afca.org.au. AFCA can then offer conciliation processes or it may investigate the dispute and issue a written decision on your case which is binding on us. This service is available at no cost to you.

Our external dispute resolution scheme cannot deal with your dispute unless you have attempted to resolve the problem with us first.

Updating this credit guide

All details are current at the date of publication of this Credit Guide. We will publish minor changes on our website. We will update the Credit Guide if there are any material changes adverse to borrowers.
